Mr. Harold Weisberg
Hyattstown, MD 20734

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I've been looking without success for a paperback copy of your book, "Whitewash II - The FBI-Secret Service Coverup". Can I acquire a copy of this book in any form from you?

As have many others, I've read with great interest numerous books and articles regarding the controversy surrounding the Kennedy assassination in Dallas, and I've accumulated quite a library on the subject. I find your books the most comprehensive and well-researched; they provide more answers than any of the other works.

A couple questions occur to me that I've never seen presented: Does the certainty of more than one assassin absolutely require a single conspiracy? How about the possibility that two or more assassins or conspirators acted in concert without fore-knowledge of one another?

I would be delighted and complimented if you were to take the time to give me your reactions to these questions.

Yours sincerely,
